HAVANA & HEMINGWAY - CUB03

Varighed
4 h

Just 97 miles due south of Key West and yet a world apart from its American neighbour, the island of Cuba was the place that the late American novelist, Ernest Hemingway, chose to make his home for 20 years from 1939 onwards. It is this literary connection that this guided half-day tour seeks to explore, beginning with a coach transfer to the authors former residence and now museum, Finca Vigía. Located only a few miles out of Havana in San Francisco de Paula, the beautiful old finca has been fully restored and provides a unique insight into how the novelist lived and worked. You will have a chance to take a look through the house open and glass windows for an insight view of the places where Hemingway lived. You'll also get to view Havana's Virgen del Camino monument and a chance to enjoy panoramic views of the Cojimar district, a former fishing village. A brief look at the Hemingway monument and the seafront Malecón boulevard then follows, after which a stop is scheduled at La Terraza de Cojimar for a Don Gregorio cocktail, a tasty blend of blue curaçao and maraschino liqueur, another of Hemingway's little helpers. Splendid views of Ambos Mundos Hotel, San Gerónimo University and Plaza de la Catedral then follow as you head for the last stop: Floridita Restaurant, where not only a delicious daiquiri, but also a life-sized bronze statue of the man himself await you at the bar. Your return to the ship then brings the tour to a close. Please note: for MSC Opera guests, this tour is available only on Mondays, for MSC Armonia guests, this tour is available on 22/23/24 November 2016, on 15.03.2017 and on every Wednesday and Thursday. ALTUN HA & THE OLD BELIZE RIVER - BLZ04

Varighed

If a chance to spot wildlife while cruising on the Old Belize River en route to an ancient Mayan site takes your fancy, put a tick in every box and join this enjoyable tour, which begins with a tender transfer from your ship to Belize City. You'll then board a boat for a leisurely jaunt down the Old Belize River with plenty of opportunity to keep an eye out for wildlife such as iguanas, birds or crocodiles. Once you've reached Burrell Boom, a quaint little village hugging the riverbank, you'll find its time for lunch. Tasty local fare and refreshments will be served, after which a coach will take you to the Mayan ruins of Altun Ha, whose name translates into Rockstone Water. The settlement was occupied from around 900 B.C. to A.D. 1000 and served as a major trading centre for the region. Led by the Canadian archaeologist Dr. David Pendergast, excavation work began in the 1960s and was ultimately responsible for unearthing the site's most valuable find: a huge carved jade head of Kinich Ahau, one of the Mayan sun gods. After your guided tour of the site, you'll return to the coach for the journey back to Belize City and your ship. Please note: sightings of wildlife cannot be guaranteed. XUNANTUNICH & MARIMBA LUNCH - BLZ05

Varighed
6:30 h

Belize has no shortage of ancient Mayan remains and situated just a smidgen shy of the countrys western border to Guatemala youll find the impressive ruins of Xunantunich. To reach the historical spot, youll board a coach at the pier, head down the scenic Western Highway and then cross the River Mopan on a hand-cranked (!) 19th-century ferry. The most imposing structure at the Xunantunich site is the temple known as El Castillo (The Castle), from whose elevated position you can see not only the surrounding rainforests of the Cayo (pronounced ky-o) District, but also the towns that dot the border between Belize and Guatemala. Once your look around the archaeological compound has come to an end, youll move on to the nearby town of San Ignacio for a lunch of typical Belizean fare, served up to the sound of local music. Looking not dissimilar to a double xylophone, the marimba is the instrument that gives the music its distinctive sound and takes much dexterity to play well. After lunch, youll return to your coach for the ride back to Belize City and your ship. Please note: since the tour involves walking on bumpy, uneven ground, it is considered to be unsuitable for guests with mobility problems or who use a wheelchair, a mobility scooter or a walking aid. KULTUR OG HISTORIE

CHACCHOBEN MAYAN RUINS - CMY06

Varighed

4 h

The dawn of the once highly developed Mayan civilisation can be traced back to around 2,000 B.C. and many of their amazing architectural structures can still be visited in Mexico to this date. In around A.D. 700, these clever people built the pilgrimage site of Chacchoben, your destination on this half-day tour. After meeting your bilingual guide, you'll head inland on an air-conditioned coach with information on the site and the Mayans provided during the ride. On arrival, your guide will show you around the site, explaining the purpose of the various structures. Amazingly, one of the pyramids still features some original red paint on its stucco walls, while a mural depicting the astronomical positions of planet Venus has stood the test of time in one of the temples. For those of an energetic disposition, there'll also be time to climb some of Chacchoben's tallest structures: the imposing Gran Basamento, a place where archaeologists found remains of ceremonial offerings dating back to 1,000 B.C.. The highest point of the temple sits above the tree canopy and affords eminently photo-worthy views. You'll also get to find out a little about the area's diverse wildlife and Mayan medicinal plants, which continue to be used to this day. A complimentary bottle of water is also included in your excursion and the relaxing return drive to your ship at the Costa Maya brings your tour to a close. Please note: the price of the tour excludes the cost of any additional soft drinks, crisps or biscuits that guests may purchase at the archaeological site. As the tour involves longer periods of walking over uneven ground and some climbing, it is considered to be unsuitable for guests with mobility problems. About 10-15 minutes will be allocated for guests to make purchases at the market inside the archaeological site. A government-imposed fee of approx. US$5 is payable by guests wishing to use video equipment (including mobile phones) at the archaeological site.

KOHUNLICH MAYAN RUINS - CMY28

Varighed

6:30 h

Situated on the Yucatán Peninsula and one of Mexico's absolute must-sees is the archaeological site of Kohunlich, a terraced city built by the Mayans between approx. A.D. 250 and A.D. 600. The site's unusual-sounding name is derived from the English name of the cohune palm, a common sight in the area. Your tour of cultural discovery begins with an air-conditioned coach ride, during which a bilingual guide will entertain you with information on the Mayan remains ahead. At the site itself, you'll be escorted through the park-like setting of the historical complex, whose highlights include a sunken palace, an acropolis, courtyards and even an ancient ceremonial ball field. But the site's main attraction is undoubtedly the Temple of the Masks, dedicated to the Mayan sun god Kinich Ahau. Although the oversized stucco masks on either side of the temple's central staircase are easy enough to see from the ground, you'll have to climb up the pyramid-like structure to get a closer look. Parts of the stucco which dates back to earlier than A.D. 500 still retain some of their original colour. With memories of the beautifully secluded Kohunlich fresh in your mind, you'll then get to enjoy a light packed lunch on the coach journey back to the Costa Maya and your ship. Please note: the tour involves a 2-hour coach drive each way without a comfort stop; guests are therefore recommended to use the facilities prior to departure. As the tour involves longer periods of walking on uneven ground, guests are requested to take extra care. The tour is considered to be unsuitable for guests with mobility problems or using a wheelchair. Guests are recommended to wear high-factor sunscreen, insect repellent and comfortable shoes. Depending on the exchange rate on the day of the tour, a fee of US$5-US$8 will be payable by guests wishing to use video equipment (including mobile phones) at the archaeological site. The site does not permit the use of tripods, professional video equipment or flash photography. The tour also involves an approx. 5-minute walk between the car park and the entrance of Kohunlich.

OCHO RIOS AND DUNNS RIVER FALLS - MTB11

Varighed
6:30 h

Travelling through Jamaica's beautiful countryside, you will pass many historic sites and villages to the world-famous Dunn's River Falls. It is believed to be the site of the famous battle of "Las Chorreras", fought in 1657 between the Spanish and the English for possession of the island. The English won, and under British rule "Las Chorreras" was first owned by Charles Pryce. The site later became part of the 276 acre Belmont property, which was acquired by the Jamaican Government in 1972, to provide for future development of recreational and park facilities. Described as a living and growing phenomenon, it continuously regenerates itself from deposits of travertine rock, the result of precipitation of calcium carbonate from the river, as it flows over the falls. The small dome-shaped cataracts are usually associated with thermal spring activity found in limestone caves. Experience the thrill of climbing the waterfall, in a human chain led by experienced Falls Guides. Pause at the 'massage parlour' and experience the soothing effects of the water as it cascades over the rocks, to the sea. For the less adventurous, view the activities of the more intrepid from the "safe" vantage point of the terrace or deck. For those who enjoy Mother Nature's gifts, lose yourself in the lush tropical foliage of ferns, bamboos, ginger lilies, crotons, orchids, a variety of palms and breadfruit trees. After visiting the falls, you will be treated to a delicious Jamaican buffet lunch, served at the Almond Tree Restaurant before the return drive to Montego Bay. Please note: the transfer to reach Ocho Rios takes approx. 2 hours. Falls Climb is not accessible to guests using a wheelchair due to uneven and rocky terrain. ISLAND TOUR & TIKI BEACH COMBO - GCA32

Varighed
4 h

When you tell your friends and family about this excursion on your return back home, you will rightfully be able to claim that it took you to Hell and back. But as Hell is only the name of a town on Grand Cayman, there's no need for undue concern. After leaving the pier, an air-conditioned coach will take you through George Town and up the western coastline, past the white powdery sands of Seven Mile Beach, the Governors Mansion and the quaint architecture of a historical Caymanian home before reaching Turtle Farm. Green and hawksbill turtles are bred and raised at this sea turtle nursery every year, with many later being released back into the wild. The tour then continued on up to the northwest of the island and the already mentioned town of Hell, which is named after an unusual rock formation. Postcards mailed from here are sure to raise a smile at home since each will be postmarked: Mailed from Hell. After your return to George Town, you will then head to Tiki Beach where you can enjoy the facilities, kick back and simply relax. Use of a lounge chair, changing rooms, toilets and freshwater showers as well as a welcoming glass of punch is included in the price of the tour. But more active pursuits are also on offer at an additional charge, with kayaking, jet skiing and parasailing just three examples. Tiki Beach also features full bar service and an à-la-carte restaurant at additional cost. Please note: guests under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a paying adult. Additional water sports activities are offered at the beach, the cost of which is not included in the price of the tour; guests taking part in such activities do so entirely at their own risk. Guests are recommended to bring swimwear, a towel, high-factor sunscreen and some cash to cover additional purchases.
